My dear Mrs. Lichtmann:

I found "Zelta Gramata" in the Shelton Parcel Room on my return from a two weeks outing at Medison, Conn. Naturally, I could not do justice to all the text; but how extraordinarily beautiful are the pictures, even in their reduced size. "Thibetan Stronghold"--- how impressive and by such simple means! "Brahamputra" also delights me with the perfection of its color and composition. What a great artist! What a great man!

Tomorrow I shall send him an autographed copy of my autobiography which is to be published on Monday. There is no one whose opinion I shall value more.

Thank you, my dear Mrs. Lichtmann, I feel confident that things will come out all right, just as you have been told that they would.

Convey my thanks also to your "friends from Riga".

With kindest regards to you and to Mr. Lichtmann, I remain, as ever,

Your sincere friend,

Claude Bragdon
