Mr Louis L. Horch, President.

Roeck Museum,

New York City.

My dear Mr Horch:-

In the midst of a most restful vacation which Mrs Grant and I are spending at our camp up here in the woods I have been making a rather careful review of the work of the Department over which I have had supervision during the past three years.

In doing this I find that the push of events has pre-

- wanted me from properly thanking you and thru you - the Master Institute and Ponich Museum for the very kind and most generous cooperation that has been extended to this department and to the teachers of art in the New York High Schools during these years. I refer not only to the many times that the Museum has opened its doors to the teachers but more especially to the granting at my request of the scholarships to the two young people John Kalfian and Minnie Sternfeld who otherwise would have had a very difficult time asking too much I would appreciate hearing what progress they have made.

In turn I want you to know that I very deeply appreciate the interest that you and your teachers have taken in these two young people.

The sincerity of all those connected with your united institutions has always impressed me greatly and it bespeaks I am sure of great progress and a great future for the fine work that you have begun. New York City is to be greatly congratulated that it contains an institution devoted to all the arts and characterized by such an uplifting spirit.

I sincerely hope that I may be able to assist you in your work as you have so kindly helped me.

Sincerely yours
