Miss Frances Grant,
Roerich Museum,
New York, New York.

Dear Miss Grant:

It was recently brought to my attention that a statement was made before a meeting in France to the effect that revolutionary movements in Chile had been facilitated by the assistance of the Roerich Museum. Of course this is perfectly absurd and absolutely without any basis of fact whatsoever. So far as I know, no Chilean revolution has ever been armed or aided from abroad.

I am writing to express my regret that an institution of the high standard and great record of accomplishment of the Roerich Museum should be the subject of such stupid gossip.

Very truly yours,

Carlos Davila
