Dear Dr. Talavento.

There is just a little more news from the Tysons. The Theildar arrived yesterday & see them, with a guard of four policemen. When he heard that Jarotem Seigal had interposed by saying he would send troops, the Theildar was very indignant, & said why do we want troops here, everything is dying down now. Maybe, perhaps that is why no telegrams have reached their right destination. Otherwise we further stories of murders & looting - we are just going to Raizen & see how Mr. Major Colonel Fottit are getting

Oh, I find out if they have any further news. The atmosphere does not seem quite so tense, but who knows what the underground movements are!

Hope Professor is getting on alright.
Cheerio.

Yours sincerely,

B. Donald.

P.S. Don't you think it would be a good idea, if all the loot that has been taken by these people, should be confiscated, & collected to put in the Trust, for the benefit of Hindu refugees from Pakistan. We know that there has is a lot of grain & money in silver about, also loot from Mr. Noon's house not far away. Otherwise it seems as though the miscreants are going to be let unpunished.
