July 25 - 1951

Dear Mrs Bundulis (a literal translation)
We thank you for the wonderful news and we are glad you are going no more long (delay) not answering. Sometimes in the life it is easier to be silent than to speak.

We are sad. Our heart grieves because that the noble, good-willed heart, good doing mind & hands of our dear & good Marta are silent & we cannot feel this more in this way as we felt this all before. Let the compassionate Father of Heaven give her immortal soul a place in His House of Light where there is no pain, no suffering, no sorrow.

Dear Marta. we ask you to believe us that in your great sorrow with you are two lovely, miserably pulsating lives, grieved but not broken hearts full with compassion, thankfulness & prayer.

All is good what God is doing, let it happen His Sacred Will.

I received from your honorable head & job dinner, hasty invitation to come to Brookfield to find out how to fix our life & job in the future, also fifty dollars for the trip (thought they were just north of Brookfield).

As you know I don't know English language and I can't answer her so quick. I shall try to answer her as soon as possible. But I think her dear & kind invitation will not be acceptable for us because we have lost our right to go to U.S.A & stay there for living. We don't have also the first American citizenship papers because of our inability, because of the great distance & also of not having enough means. I am convinced that this is the mind of God.

The conditions of our life are really hard, as in material meaning so in moral. In these Canadian wilderness are living hard hearted people with whom there is not possible to find some spiritual contact, therefore we are really hermits here. Also we can't reach here the medical help which my wife needs so much. Any way we do not despair.

Knowing his ability, the human being feels distant the power of God and makes efforts to hold on to His strength.

We ask you kindly, to say to dear Mrs Campbell our sincerest thanks. For Martha's soul we shall pray & pray as we can.

How are you & Mr Panassens? Warm regards & please answer us. I kindly ask you to inform Mrs C about our conditions described in this letter - yours, P. Ruzemans -
