

1
Brookfield, Connecticut
September 27, 1946

Miss Frances R. Grant
45 West 45th. Street
New York 19, N.Y.

Dear Frances;

We regret that this letter is written at a late date, however we felt that it might be possible to see you upon your return to New York. In our present circumstances it is extremely difficult to arrange a meeting among us in New York.

We are in sympathy with your indebtedness mentioned in your letter, but we do not feel capable of undertaking any further obligations. The status of the convertible assets of the Roerich Museum Press now, is approximately the same as upon arrival. Unfortunately inadequate storage facilities have spoiled a number of books.

Having never participated in the Museum Press we cannot feel financially responsible for the mentioned storage and its liquidation. However we are willing to transfer the Press editions, stored in Connecticut to you as former Press Director.

We hope you enjoyed your vacation and that you returned well rested. Both Inge and I send our greetings.

Yours,

Katherine