Dearest Miss Lichtman;

It was indeed a pleasant surprise to get your letter. I was beginning to think you had forgotten all about me.

You don't mention how soon you expect to return. It will really be good to see you again. I'm sure this trip must be a marvelous experience for you.

As for myself, I have gone thru quite a siege since you left. My poor darling husband passed away, due to a hemorrhage, last July. Of course, I face the situation very bravely, knowing only too well, how much better off my darling is at rest, rather ^{than} being here and suffering, but, nevertheless, I can't help being lonely.

As to my music, I haven't touched the piano since you left N. Y. When you left, my inspiration left me.

I hope you are in good health, and that you are enjoying every minute of your stay in the east, with much love,

Fondly,

Helen Lewis.
