

FLAMMA

November 15, 1937.

Mrs. Mildred Coburn Kingsbury,
Baltimore Museum of Art,
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Mrs. Kingsbury:

Last summer when I visited your Museum you kindly introduced me to Mr. McKinney over the telephone. You mentioned a grandmother who was "a Fosdick" and spoke of your daughter, I believe, who had just graduated from the University. Or was it your son, who had in the graduating class with a daughter of Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick - who delivered the address to the students?

At any rate I remember speaking about the possible kinship of our ancestors and also of the kinship of thoughts and ideas expressed in the address of Dr. Fosdick with those already expressed in the writings of Nicholas Hoerich, Honorary President of "Flamma".

I am sending you a copy of the first publication of our recently formed Association, a booklet by Richard Rudzitis, "Culture", and a pamphlet outlining briefly our ideals and purposes.

I should be pleased to hear from you at any time.

Sincerely yours,

Dudley Fosdick
Vice-President
