

October 22, 1937.

Mrs. Mitchell Carroll,
Archaeological Society,
Southern Building,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mrs. CARROLL:

We have been receiving the Journal of the Archaeological Society addressed to Professor Nicholas Roerich and have been forwarding them to him in India. On behalf of Professor Roerich we are now inquiring as to why the Journal is not mailed directly to him, and why there was not received by him any acknowledgment of the receipt of his membership fee which he sent a long time ago directly to Washington.

At the time Professor Roerich sent his membership fee he requested that the Journal be sent directly to him at NAGGAR, KULU, PUNJAB, INDIA.

We will appreciate your sending to Professor Roerich a receipt for his membership fee, or if it has already been sent we will appreciate your letting us know.

Very truly yours,

Dudley Fosdick,
Secretary.

November 18, 1937.

Mrs. Caroline B. Carroll,
Director,
The Archaeological Society of Washington,
315 Southern Building,
Washington D.C.

Dear Mrs. Carroll:

Thank you very much for your kind letter explaining the situation with regard to the Archaeological Society and the receiving of Professor Roerich's membership fee.

We are forwarding your letter to Professor Roerich and feel sure that he will understand your difficulties and appreciate your kind words regarding his continued interest in your work.

It may be that Professor Roerich wishes especially to have some formal evidence of this link of cooperation such as a card or receipt. If this is possible we will be grateful for your sending it direct to him -at MARGAR, KULU, PUNJAB, BRITISH INDIA, or sending it to us for forwarding.

If you have discontinued giving membership cards or receipts please do not feel obliged in this.

With best wishes for the success of your work, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.