The Editor,
The Richmond Item,
Richmond, Indiana.

Dear Sir:

On October 7, 1937, I submitted a paper for publication in the ITEM on the Roerich Anniversary of the 10th of October.

I enclosed a stamped envelope self-addressed to our Indiana address, 313 East Union Street, Liberty, Indiana, but since then I have not received word that the article appeared in the ITEM, nor have I received the returned manuscript.

If it did appear already I wish to order seven copies of the issue - if inconvenient to send C.O.D. you may send bill in the enclosed envelope. If it is not to be published I will appreciate your returning it to me in the enclosed stamped envelope, self-addressed to our New York address, 227 Riverside Drive, where I am at present.

Yours,

Dudley Fosdick. Vice-President
