Calcutta,

Dear Sir:

You were so kind as to ask me whether the letters, ^{two} of which you had given me stamps, had arrived at their respective destinations

I can now state that the two letters to Switzerland duly arrived, but not the letters which had been sent to the U. S. A.

I hope that in the meantime you were able to get to the bottom of these investigations. Even if there was a leakage here, due to the theft of stamps, I still cannot understand that also incoming letters had to be lost.

In the hope of hearing from you.

I remain,

Faithfully yours,
Sergey Fritschi.
