My dear Brother:

Please accept my sincere thanks for your check of thirty dollars ($30.00). As Miss E. J. Lichtman had not paid for the ten sets of cards, we shall apply ten dollars, ($10.00) for the payments of the ten sets of cards and twenty dollars ($20.00) for the Riga account.

We rejoice reading of the progress of the laboratory and we are happy to hear of your able participation in this great work.

With love from Nettie, Flavius, Oriole and myself, I remain in the name of the great work,

Your brother,

Louis

Dear Mr. Shibayev:

It gives us pleasure to notify you that we have instructed the Irving Trust Company to send $1000 worth of rupees to the account of Mrs. Helena Roerich, Imperial Bank of India, Lahore. This represents the $1000 donation received from Major Stokes.

I have also notified the Irving Trust Company that they should confirm this directly to you, and that they should instruct the Imperial Bank of India at Lahore, to notify you immediately upon placing the funds to the account of Mrs. Helena Roerich.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Mr. Shibayev:

We have just received the enclosed notice from Mackinnon MacKenzie, and would appreciate very much your advising us about it.

We beg to inform you that we have instructed the Irving Trust Company, New York to send over $1,000 in rupees purchased at the rate of 39, amounting to Rs. ²⁵⁶⁴⁻¹⁸ to be placed to the account of Mrs. Helena Roerich with the Imperial Bank of Lahore. The Irving Trust Company has been instructed to advise you directly by letter of this transaction, and the Irving Trust has also been advised that the Imperial Bank should immediately notify you when these funds have been placed to the credit of Mme. Roerich.

John Donald

I need not repeat what an unforgettable privilege it is to have Professor Roerich in our midst. His presence here is the greatest inspiration for all. We are also most happy to have Dr. George Roerich with us, and we all regret that their visit is such a short one.

Your beautiful photographs are a constant pleasure and whenever you have any duplicates of any scenes of Naggar, Kulu I should be grateful to you if you would send them to me.

It was a pleasure for Mrs. Horch and myself to hear such fine things about you. With warmest greetings,
I am

My dear Mr. Shibayev:

I wish herewith to notify you that $3,000 worth of rupees (Rs. 7.72004) were sent to the Imperial Bank of India, Simla, for the account of Mrs. Helena Roerich. The Irving Trust Company in New York has been advised by me to confirm this to you direct.

We enjoyed greatly your splendid weekly reports which Professor Roerich was kind enough to show us while he was here, and it was a pleasure to read all the interesting news.

Hoping these lines reach you in the best of health and with warmest greetings, in which Mrs. Horch joins me, I am

Dear Mr. Shibayev:

Many thanks for your letter of May 10th. I was happy to read that the financial remittances have been clarified.

You request some photos of Mrs. Horch and the children, and we shall be very happy to send you some shortly. Mrs. Horch is going to Moriah with the children the middle of June, and then there will be many opportunities for taking pictures. I repeat that your photographs are greatly appreciated by us; I have placed them all in a special book and in spare time I often look through them and wander in my thoughts to the Himalayas. So I should appreciate it, when you do have copies, if you would send them to me.

We all know that times are straitened here, but we also know that a great victory is predestined.

With warmest greetings, in which Mrs. Horch joins me,
I am

Yours cordially,

Louis L. Horch, President

P.S. I am enclosing a letter from Mackinnon Mackenzie & Co. Please advise me if this should be paid.

My dear Mr. Shibayev:

Many thanks to you for your letter of June 7th, which has reached me, as well as Minutes #79. The letter acknowledging receipt of the $3,000 worth of rupees has been immediately given to Miss Grant.

Permit me to congratulate you warmly on your splendid commemorative address in behalf of our beloved co-worker and brother, Dr. Lukin. I also wish to add Mrs. Horch's congratulations on this address.

I appreciated all the details in your letter about your life at Naggar. To me, to hear from you and about Naggar and all the happenings there, is of deepest interest. Every word that I hear from this glorious place is a joy to me.

I am glad to read that the air mail now is speeding up, and that you receive letters two days earlier than previously.

I hope that soon Mrs. Horch will send you the photos which you requested.

It will give you great pleasure to hear that the Judge has approved the Reorganization Plan, and I am also re-entering the Foreign Exchange field. The name of the firm will be L.L. Horch & Company, 62 William Street.

I was touched by your beautiful words about Mother, and I ^{also} fully share with you your view that it will be a great joy for us to meet again after such a long parting. May this meeting take place soon.

Hoping that I will hear from you, soon again, I remain with cordial greetings, in which Mrs. Horch joins me,

Yours,

Louis L. Horch

My dear Mr. Shibayev:

Many hearty thanks for sending me these artistic postal cards, which gave Mrs. Horch and myself great joy. I shall place them carefully into our collection. I may add that not only Mrs. Horch and myself enjoyed the cards, but also Flavius and Oriole who wished very much to play with them. But as you can imagine, for some special reason we thought it best to put them away. Flavius himself, as you know, is getting a special collection together and has received some lovely photographs from Beloved O.

I was very pleased also to receive your note of July 5th, in which you so clearly indicate the instructions with the Simla and Lahore banks.

Also, permit me to thank you most warmly for the good wishes expressed by you for the success of the reorganization. Our problem now is to conclude quickly all the legal formalities.

Valiantly we shall continue to go forward in His name!

It is always a pleasure for me to hear from Beloved O. of the fine work that you are doing. Assuring you again that the photographs of beautiful Naggar are a joy to Mrs. Horch and myself, and with warmest spiritual greetings, I am

Yours cordially,

Dear Mr. Shibayev:

I would like to acknowledge having received from the Urusvati, Himalayan Research Institute the monograph on Professor Roerich by R. C. Tandan, the Assam Review, as well as the Indian Readers Digest. The Trustees enjoyed these publications. We were indeed very happy to see the new monograph by Mr. Tandan. This is a valuable addition.

Dear Mr. Shibayev:

Some time ago you requested us to send you a large photograph of Professor de Roerich's painting, THE LOTUS. I have inquired of everyone here, but it seems that no photograph of this painting is on hand at the moment. As soon as a photograph may be available, however, we will be glad to let you have a print.

We are enclosing here some photographs of the galleries, for which you have also asked.

Whenever I have any new photographs available you may be certain that I shall send them to you.

With cordial greetings, I am

Yours very sincerely,

My dear Mr. Shibayev:

It gives me great pleasure to send you the Proceedings of the Third International Convention for the Roerich Pact and Banner of Peace, held in Washington, D.C., November 17 - 18, 1933, which have just been published.

You will find your own message to the Convention on pages 154 - 156; and your name included also on pages 9, 175 and 178.

As you will note, the book includes the recent developments in the advancement of the Roerich Pact and Banner of Peace, as well as the names of the nations who have already signified their adherence to this cause.

With cordial greetings, I am
