Dear Mr. Gangoly,

I am sending to you herewith two Photographs of Tibetan Tankas. These I believe will be most interesting illustrations with the article.

I have read your books with the utmost interest and congratulate you on your efforts in illumining the questions of art. I should appreciate it if you could inform me of what is my indebtedness to your organization for sending out the notices and postponement of the Lecture.

Anticipating the pleasure of seeing you again,

I am,

Very truly yours,

Professor Nicholas Roerich, still in Darjeeling after his return from the Roerich A

Dear Mr. Gangoly,

Some time ago we sent to you an article on "Tibetan Art" and it appears that we had omitted to include an insertion on page 5, in the middle, between "of such perfection" and "The contemporary art of Tibet...."

I am sending the omitted text herewith and request you to kindly insert it, if such is still possible.

During the Indian Art Exhibition Prof. Roerich bought an Indian Painting by Mr. Goganendranath Tagore. The exhibition is no doubt now over and we would therefore be grateful to you if you could be so kind as to have this painting sent to us here, well packed, by mail.

Thanking you in anticipation,
Yours sincerely
for Prof. N. Roerich

The Editor RUPAM
Calcutta

Dear Sir,

We shall be glad to know whether you receive from New-York the R.M. Bulletin. If not we shall be glad to arrange this.

Prof. Roerich, who is Life-Member of the Indian Society of Oriental Art misses the receipt of the Journal RUPAM. In case you are sending it to New-York, please note the address as above and please send all issues as from the new year to this address.

Prof. Roerich often remembers you and sends you his kindest regards.

You have of course heard that the Roerich Peace Pact Conference in Bruges met such universal success and we are sending you herewith 2 postcards by Prof. Roerich dedicated to the Peace and Culture Fund, as well as an interview for your perusal, and a reprint of the World Unity Magazine.

I shall appreciate to hear from you at your early convenience.

Yours very sincerely,

Secretary to Prof. Roerich.
