

HALL ESTATE
May 10, 1930

Dear Miss Levingston,

I am returning herewith with many thanks Wellington's Handbook on Photography, which you so kindly sent me on Mr. Flewett's behalf some weeks back. I consider it an excellent handbook, and have now received my own copy from Calcutta.

I regret I have ~~now~~ been successful with butterflies. The "peacock-butterfly" I understand is not yet out, but when (and if) I shall be able to catch one, I will send it on to you. The large green one, of which you had such wonderful specimens I have never been able to see round the Hall here.

With best regards to Mrs Flewett and
Mrs Levingston,

Yours sincerely

Dear Miss Levingston,

Many thanks for your letter of ~~the~~ yesterday. No doubt you are all very happy going home already earlier, and I hope and pray that Billy's illness is not too serious to cause you too much anxiety.

Since your departure is so hastened, and as I am not feeling well (cough & cold) to come down myself, permit me to wish you all a very happy trip and enjoyable return home.

I am also desired by Prof. and Mme Roerich, as well as by Miss E.J.Lichtmann to send you their very best greetings and wishes for a pleasant voyage.

Yours very sincerely

P.S. With regard to the 3 tins Kerosin at $5 and 9 tins Oats at $1, I am sending some men and also $54 herewith - we shall be very glad to take these useful things over from you.

Dear Miss Levingston,

It is indeed most kind of you to think of me in sending this precious carbide, which I accept with a great many sincerest thanks, I always have a lot of trouble in getting it from Lahore.

This reminds me, that I promised Mr. Flewett a box of lantern masks No. 11, from my large surplus, as I got by some mistake several boxes, instead of one as I ordered. I shall be glad if these will be of some use to him. Is Mr. Flewett quite certain he shall need any more carbide during the time he will remain here? Anyhow, please let him know if there is anything, carbide or otherwise, he may require, I shall always be very glad to let him have whatever I can.

Once more with very best wishes for a pleasant journey, and best thanks for your kind sending,

Yours very sincerely
