Dear Mrs Flewett,

Many thanks for your letter and the good news. I shall arrange to send some coolies and to exchange as much as you can spare in walnuts.

With kind regards to yourself and Mr. Flewett,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mrs Flewett,

Your man brought a piece of glass yesterday for cutting, and as there is neone on the place here, except myself to cut glass, I was very glad to do it for. Hope you will find it satisfactory. Should you want any brass ring hangers, or Dennison binding tape, I shall always be glad to give you these.

With kindest regards

Yours sincerely

HALL ESTATE

Dear Mrs Flewett,

Thanking you once more for the fine chestnuts, we are now sending you with our very best greetings an equal weight of half a maund of walnuts and hope you will find them to your liking. Sorry I could not send them earlier, as they only came in this morning.

Yours sincerely,
