ON THE OCCASION OF DR. BIDHAN CHANDRA ROY'S BIRTHDAY

It is with quite a special feeling that one pays tribute to a man like Bidhan Chandra Roy. As a brilliant physician he made a great mark in his profession; as a great statesman he began his political work as a close collaborator of the great leaders who ushered in the long awaited independence and remained at the helm of the administration of his State to safely guide it through very difficult periods, giving his wise and practical council to strengthen the work of national upbuilding.

It is indeed fortunate for a State and for a Government to have such a wise and outstanding man and leader as Bidhan Chandra Roy to guide the intricacies of modern Government and of human relations.

We wish him many and happy returns of this most auspicious day.
