Dear Sir,

We are much obliged for your kind indent dated 29. 3. 32 and have the honour to inform you that the goods have been despatched and the bill is enclosed herewith. The R/R has been sent per V.P.P. as desired by you. We hope the goods will reach quite safe.

We further beg to point out that in our last bill No. 8730 of 16.12.31. vide your order dated 10.12.30 there has been a clerical mistake. For 10 Dozen W.M. Bottles 4 oz. supplied - instead of charging at Rs 4/4/- per dozen we charged you Rs 2/- per dozen. We therefore have debited your account with a sum of Rs 22/8/- and hope you will oblige us by sending this amount by money order. A revised copy of this bill is also enclosed herewith for your information.

Hoping to be excused for this mistake.

Enc. Bill.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf from an old book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance and faint horizontal ruling lines. There are two large circular holes on the left edge, possibly from a binder or punch. Several small tears or marks are visible near the top and bottom left corners. The page is otherwise empty of text or illustrations.

This image shows a blank, aged ledger page. The page is ruled with a grid of 12 columns and 25 rows. The columns are of varying widths, with the first column being the widest. The rows are uniform in height. The paper is a light beige color, showing signs of age such as slight discoloration and a few small, faint stains. There is no text or data entered on the page.
