Dear Mr. Shibayev:

I have received from you the two money-orders for $2.48 each, and have given both to Mr. Horch, since he personally laid out the money for your orders. This was done at the time in order not to go through Mr. Platkin, as you also requested in a later letter.

I hope that the Histomaps have reached you safely. If ever you have any further requests that you may wish to make, I shall be very glad to be of assistance.

With best greetings,

Sincerely yours,

Kathryn Linden.

Dear Mr. Shibayev:

I have received your letter of instructions concerning the distribution of the Journal, Volume III, and shall carefully compare it with the books received from Calcutta, upon their arrival.

We greatly appreciate the bound distribution list, which will very much facilitate keeping a record of all Journals sold or given away for various purposes. Miss Lichtmann has decided to have a card printed and inserted in the copies sent out on exchange account, requesting the institutions to send their own publications direct to Naggar. We shall also order the labels now, so as to have them addressed when the Journals arrive.

As requested, we shall make report of all shipments made by us on the Journal, with dates of sending.

The bound list will be a great help, as a permanent, and durable record.

With best greetings,

Sincerely yours,

Kathryn Linden.
