Dear Sir:

Will it be possible for you to present to the New York Pub ic Library when published a copy of the Tibetan-English Dictionary, by Georges de Roerich? Our attention has been called to this publication by a notice in the Roerich Museum Press and as the Dictionary would be of great service in our reference collection, we trust you may have a copy which you can spare for deposit here when it is ready for distribution.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) E.H. Anderson, Director.

Mr. E. H. Anderson, Director
New York Public Library
Fifth Ave. and 42nd St.
New York City

Dear Mr. Anderson:

We were very pleased to receive your letter of November 30th, expressing interest in the Tibetan-English Dictionary now being compiled by Dr. George de Roerich. While it would not be possible for us to accede to your request for a complimentary copy of this work, we wonder whether you could not suggest to one of your Patrons that they present a copy to the Library? If you prefer to give us the name of such a Patron, and have us approach him direct, we would also be pleased to do this.

We look forward to your reply.

Your request for a copy of "Spinoza, the Biosopher," will be given to the Roerich Museum Press.

Very truly yours,

Vice-President

P. S. We should be very glad to allow a discount of 15% from the listed price.

Dear Mrs. Blair:

We are enclosing herewith an announcement describing the Tibetan-English Dictionary now being compiled by Dr. Georges de Roerich, in collaboration with Lobzang Mingyur Dorje, a volume which has aroused great interest in scientific circles, because of its value as a unique contribution to science.

There will no doubt be many libraries and universities which at this time could not afford to subscribe to it, but which would greatly appreciate having this work thus making it accessible to the public at large. Such a contribution from a patron of art and science to any of the educational institutions or libraries would indeed by of great service.

You may wish to subscribe for this volume as a benefactor in the name of one of our educational institutes in America or aborad.

With cordial greetings, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sirs,

We thank you for your kind letter of the 10th of June and we have accordingly registered your order for

2 copies TIBETAN-ENGLISH DICTIONARY

This is scheduled to appear by the end of 1934 and you will be informed immediately the definite date is known. We are sending enclosed a leaflet on this DICTIONARY, and should you desire we shall be glad to send you some dozen or two, of these leaflets for desitribution among you customers, on hearing from you. We can allow 25% maximum discount from the present subscription price of Rs:100. After publication the sale price will be considerably higher.

In view of the fact that in Japan there is a considerable interest for the publications of the Roerich Institutions - since Prof.de Roerich has for a great many years expressed his cordiality and best feelings towards Japan, and Japan in reprprocity also expressed best friendship - weare sending you herewith two catalgoues of our URUSVATI HIMLAYAN RESEARCH INSTITUTE and of ROERICH MUSEUM PRESS publications (Prices in Rupees) , of which we can send you copies on consignment - less 33% discount. We are sending you a copy of the latest issue of URUSVATI Journal as sample on commission, together with two other booklets as per invoice enclosed.

We shall be obliged if you can let us know now, how many more copies of the TIBETAN DICTIONARY you expect to find orders for,

Prof.de Roerich's book "ADAMAN" in translation of Mr.Takeuchi in Japanese, published in Kyoto, is probably known to you. We would be obliged if you could obtain and send us 2 copies of this on similar terms to our editions. Please send by reg.bookpost, via NYK line via Colombo as this is much quicker.

Dear Professor Winsor,

We were glad to hear from your letter of the 9th inst., that you found the monograph on the TIBETAN DIALECT OF LAHUL very interesting. As desired, I have put you name on our mailing list for any further publications of the TIBETICA series and will notify you in due course as soon as they will appear.

Since you are interested in this kind of publications, may I perhaps draw your attention to reprints

No.12 THE TIBETAN CEREMONY OF BREAKING THE STONE, by Dr.G.de Roerich. 16 pp and illustr.- which has several pages in Tibetan Text and Engl. translation of same and

No.11 Studies in the Kalacakra. By Dr.G.deRoerich - 12 pp, which, though having no Tibetan text, also deals with an interesting Tibetan subject.

In case you do not have these already and are interested, both these reprints from Vol.II of our Urusvati Journal, are available separately, also from this office (price Annas 1/4 and 12 Annas respectively).

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your card inquiry of the 30th ult ., we have to state that ROERICH - Tibetan English Dictionary has not yet appeard, and as it is being enlarged upon and in view of the absence of the Director (who is the author of this work) in a expedition in the Far East, the date of issue is being delayed. We shall write you further when this appears.

We shall however be glad to send you for REVIEW a complimentary copy of Dr.GEORGES DE ROERICH, Tibetan Dialect of Lahu, Tibetica Series I, which is a most interesting and singular monograph on this subject, or we can also send you a copy of our Institute's Journal for 1933, as per list of contents herewith enclosed.

In anticipation of your reply,

Yours faithfully,

Attn. Mr. Horch

Dear Sir:

In the Elbert H. Gary Library of Law, we have materials representing the law of every country in the world except Tibet. We have been searching everywhere for clues to the location of such material, whether manuscript or printed. We did succeed three years ago in acquiring copies of the Seventeen Laws of Sikkim, which are the foundation also of Tibetan law, but still are not the same.

I know that the Roerich Museum has had an expedition in that region for some time past. I wonder if there is any member of the expedition whom you could name to me as being likely to be able to look out for and acquire such material. Any information that you could give would be much appreciated by

Dear Sir,

We acknowledge with thanks receipt of your letter of Dec.21st received through Dr.Georges de Roerich, our Director . We have accordingly book your order for three copies of TIBETAN-ENGLISH DICTIONARY at Rs:100 per copy less 20% trade discount, postage extra. (Please note that postage is not free, but has to be added to the cost of our publications.

We have also sent to you to-day in 3 printed-matter-packets two complete sets of our publications on consignment as per invoice herewith enclosed and 50 leaflets on the Dictionary and we hope that after distribution of the latter, we may look forward for further orders from you for same.

We also enclose herewith a list of publications. As regards items 1-28, these are reprints from the journals and we have not sent you any of these, since we have only few copies of them left and they are not sent on consignment. We can however supply these on cash order, less discount,plus postage, except ##10,17 and 21, which are altogether sold out.

Thanking you for your order and anticipation your acknowledgment

Dear Sir,

Your letter of Jan.5th inquiring about the possibility of obtaining information about LAW BOOKS of TIBET had been transmitted to us by our New-York Office.

Our Director, Dr.Georges de Roerich is certainly the best person to consult in this matter - he has not only an exceptional knowledge of the language and country of Tibet, having been there on a scientific expedition, but has also compiled recently a new comprehensive dictionary of the Tibetan language (which awaits publication, and of which we have pleasure in enclosing a leaflet herewith).

Unfortunately the Director is at present away on a scientific expedition in Central Asia, conducted on behalf of the United States Government, but we have written to him on the subject and will let you know immediately we receive a reply. But since the expedition is in the Central Asian deserts, it may take some long time before such reply is received.

Yours faithfully,

We are in receipt of your postcard Kl-Bu-Cont- of April 5th inquiring about the NOERICH TIBETAN ENGLISH DICTIONARY, and we have to inform you in reply that owing to the absence of the Director of this Institute who is also the author of this work, the publication of the Dictionary has been temporarily postponed. The Director is on an American Expedition in Central Asia, and the publication of the dictionary can only be undertaken on his return, thought almost the entire material is ready for the press.

As soon as a more definite date shall be known we shall let you know immediately. Your preliminary order for ELEVEN copies of this work has been registered on our list and notification will thus be sent to you without fail.

Sept.5,1935

Dear Sir:

A couple of weeks ago I had sent round a circular letter re the plan of a 25% reduction for German publications. I am more than pleased that the arrangement then outlined has become true and is brought into force on Sept.9th.

All new German books and periodicals for abroad will benefit a 25% reduction. Logically books at net prices such as secondhand as well as foreign books and all those which are not published in the ordinary trade are not subject to the new scheme.

Every foreign buyer is entitled to receive these 25%, and it is the agent's duty to carefully watch that actually these lowered prices are properly applied.

My bills will show in future some slight changes and to make things quite clear to you, they will bear both, list-prices and the reduced prices. By these 25% reduction all advantages and extra allowances are naturally done away with. You have no formalities whatever to observe, I am doing all the work here so that there will be no trouble at your end. Remittances are to be made as heretofore either in foreign exchange or free Reichsmark.

We booksellers and the respective official quarters are making this sacrifice to cultivate the sale of the German book abroad with the sincere hope that foreign bookbuyers will thus be enabled to drop the loathing for new acquisitions and to buy more freely at better ease again.

I am very glad indeed to give you this official information, and the more I am pleased that all the long lasting efforts have finally lead to this good result to be employed to the proper benefit of my foreign clientele. It is taken for granted that this reducing action can only very well be kept on if foreign buyers are trying to multiply their purchases.

With assurances that privileges of the new regulations will be pursued in every respect to your good, I am,

very truly yours,

Dear Sir,

Why did you not yet refer to my post-card of February 10th, by which I wrote you again about your:

Roerich and Lama Lobzang Mingyur Dorje.
Tibetan-English dictionary

Certainly this work has not yet come out, as otherwise you would have sent me the eleven copies for my subscribers. But at any rate it imports me very much to learn, when now your dictionary will be ready for sale. My clients want a definite reply in this matter and so please answer me accordingly or make your sending, in case the publication has come out in the meantime.

Believe me to be, Dear Sir,

Bu. Cont

Yours faithfully,

Otto Harrassowitz.
